Style #WON 147

We are all messengers of the Rainbow. Let your light shine! The enchanted dance of the sun and the rain, the embrace of heaven and Earth, woven together bringing to the fabric of life a new dimension, a sacred messenger . . . the Rainbow.

The Rainbow speaks on behalf of all nations, all religions, all beliefs, and all ideas. It speaks of the unification of all life; it speaks of the infinite spectrum of all. The magical blend of wind and rain and light and color speaks of peace, and vibrates with harmony proclaiming its message.

Together we become something new, something magnetic, something spectacular, something miraculous . . . we become one.

EAGLE KACHINA
Style #WON 148

All life is sacred.

The messenger of self illumination is welcoming us to the world of the invisible, with its eagle feathers offering a message of prayer to all other worlds, stars, and dimensions; where life in its infinite forms and formlessness exists.

The elegant eagle enables us to soar above the mundane and broaden our awareness beyond the visible horizon of our everyday life.

The ceremonial chamber of the kiva represents the form and body of the universe, the ladder reaching upwards from the kiva symbolizes the ascension of the spirit into the world of the invisible forces that guide us on our road of life.

Thus, we soar with the eagle guiding us to develop and recognize our oneness with what we see and what we do not see, the magical journey home; to embrace our sacred cosmic identity.
